FEEDBACK OF STAKEHOLDERS SESSION 2021-22

The students of institution are the center of stakeholders and all the activities are undertaken by the institution with a purpose of making their academics hassle free and conducive to their overall development. Therefore, it becomes imperative for the institution to measure the level of achievement along with identifying the hinderances in the process. For this purpose, the IQAC cell conducted a survey in 2021-22 with the help of heads of various departments and programme coordinators.

The feedback performas are available online on college website <http://gcwpali.ac.in>. under four categories

1. Student feedback on course
2. Student feedback on College infrastructure
3. Alumni Feedback
4. Parents' feedback

Since very few students had access to internet facility an off line survey was also conducted by the institution. Along with student survey, an offline survey of teachers was also conducted regarding the content of syllabus, its adequacy, time provided for a course, reference material and practical utility of the course they are teaching. The results of this survey was also analyzed.

Report

It was found that teachers are not satisfied with the content of syllabus they are teaching. They feel that it does not cover contemporary /global issues/trends. The teaching hours are sufficient and teaching material is also available but according to teachers it does not inculcate skills and employability of students. Hence it is suggested that the college will inform the university to incorporate some changes in the curriculum. Moreover, it was also decided that more skill enhancing programmes under various cells. It was also decided that the faculty will try to incorporate global/contemporary issues in their teaching and focus more on practical experience.
